01 PROFILE

I am Asha, a recent graduate with a bachelor's degree in information science, providing me with a robust foundation in information management, technology, and systems. I completed my exit exam with a score of 74. Throughout my studies, I engaged in coursework and hands-on projects, including "SudoQ: The Puzzle Maestro," which honed my expertise in information retrieval, data analysis, and programming, especially in Java. My practical experience spans web development, networking, and library science, further reinforcing my skills in data management and IT systems. I am known for my strong problem-solving abilities, attention to detail, and commitment to continuous learning.
